

From the Pastor's Desk:

This Sunday is the Feast of All Saints, in which we celebrate the many canonized saints of the Church, like St. Peter, St. John Paul II, and so on, but we also celebrate that countless host of holy people who have gone before us and now are in Heaven. We are also reminded to turn to them for their prayers just as we turn to each other on this earth for prayers. Monday is All Souls Day when we honor and pray for our beloved deceased. We are reminded that purgatory is the last great mercy. Scripture tells us that nothing imperfect may enter Heaven. Praise God for this place in which a soul which dies in a state of grace but not in perfection is passively purified of its remaining faults and prepared then to be perfect in Heaven. All Souls Day Mass will be at 7:30 p.m. (Please note there will be no 5:30 p.m. Mass that evening nor confessions).

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

If you did not turn in your stewardship form or did not receive one, there is still time to do so. Extra forms are located on the table in the back of church. These can be placed in the offertory basket or sent to the parish office. You may also complete a stewardship form online at the parish website. The form is under the Resources tab, Volunteering section.

The choir will be starting to practice for Christmas soon. Anyone who is interested in singing at the Midnight Mass is welcome to come to practices on Wednesday evenings beginning November 4th. We will start working on Christmas music around 7:30 p.m. Please join us! For questions, call Diane Corcoran at 740-703-2176.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, December 12. To help the High School Youth Group Members get to Mexico to do Mission Work in July 2016, we are holding an International Christmas Dinner. Tickets will be on sale soon. Also, we will be having a Silent Auction. The Silent Auction will consist of themed baskets (a great way to Christmas Shop). If you would like to help sponsor one of the baskets in part or whole, contact Karen Miles, Bob Dye, or Nicholas French. You can also contact Jenny French at the church office.

HYGIENE BANK – We are in need of all items: shampoo, bar soap, individual toothbrushes, toothpaste, lotions, shaving cream, small combs, small brushes, small packages of kleenex, etc. All of these items are shared with the SVDP's food bank and various agencies such as Elizabeths's Hope, Hope Clinic, Men's Shelter and Domestic Violence Shelter and Seeds of Hope to help the homeless and needy of our community. Your help is very much appreciated. If you have questions, please call Donna Weisenberger at 740-777-1186 or the parish office. Donations accepted any time of the month and can be brought to the office or put in the baskets in the vestibule. Thank you for your generosity to continue to support this project.

Bishop Flaget School needs someone to take over the running of the school cafeteria. Knowledge of nutrition and ability to cook a plus, but we will train in all you need to know. Position is hourly (up to 30 hours per week). Summer, school holidays, and weekends off. If you are interested or know someone who is, please contact Mrs. Corcoran at 740.253.0433.

Today's psalm makes clear that we and everything we think we own actually belong to God instead: "The Lord's are the earth and its fullness, the world and those who dwell in it." We are stewards, not owners, of our lives and all we possess!
