

Pastor's Column

Next weekend, Bishop Campbell will be celebrating our 11:30 a.m. Mass and will confirm several young people from St. Peter and St. Mary parishes. This is an exciting time for them and for our parishes. Please keep them in your prayers as they prepare to receive this Sacrament which strengthens in them the spiritual gifts bestowed by the Holy Spirit.

A reminder from the Catechism about the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit:

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. They belong in their fullness to Christ, Son of David. They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them. They make the faithful docile in readily obeying divine inspirations. (CCC 1831)

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

The schola will be singing an Easter Refrain with “Vita Sanctorum” before the 11:30 a.m. Mass. The translation is:

Refrain: Let Israel now confess that he is gracious:
and that his mercy endureth for ever.

Verses:

Life of thy saints and glory of thine angels,
Christ, who art life of all who strive to love thee,
Who, by thy dying on the cross didst vanquish
Death's ministrations

Save in these holy days of peace thy servants,
Guard and sustain by pledges of thy triumph,
For now thy Pascal feast throughout the wide world
Joy in thy keeping

Feast when from hell as victor thou returning
When thou hadst loosed the fathers that were sleeping,
Beardst the flesh that thou didst take upon thee
Unto the high stars.

Now thou art Lord resplendent in the highest,
And o'er the heavens, God, thou art exalted,
Thence thou shalt come, O God and man, in glory,
Judge, at the world's end.

Altar flowers have been donated by the Neal family in Memory of Bill Neal on the First Anniversary of Death.

We continue our 33 Days of Prayer for the End to the Drug Epidemic begin May 22. You can still join us in this prayer as we pray for the end of the drug epidemic that has engulfed our community and for all those ensnared by drug addiction!

WAYS TO HELP THOSE IN NEED THAT ARE SERVICED BY THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

Cereal	Soup
Tuna	Canned Peas
Spaghetti Sauce	Pasta
Dish Liquid	Personal care items: i.e., shampoo, feminine hygiene products

Do you donate clothes to Goodwill? At St. Vincent de Paul we sometimes have clients who need new clothes, and we are able to give them vouchers to buy them at Goodwill. If you or anyone you know donates a large bag of clothing to Goodwill, and fills out the donation form with our name on it (St. Peter's St. Vincent de Paul), we will get a credit toward the vouchers that we give out. Your donation to Goodwill helps that organization, and in this way it will also help our own St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you for considering this.

Adoration Chapel Intention for the Week of June 4, 2017:
In Honor of the Clark Family as donated by Bill & Ellen Clark.

A few weeks ago, Fr. Hahn mentioned in his homily some of the ways in which St. Peter's has been present to the poor and outcast in our community; here is another little-known expression of this. Most of our parishioners are unaware that for years, St. Peter's has supported an unusual informal "partnership" with some of the inmates at Chillicothe Correctional (CCI). For years, the community service inmates along with the inmates from "Reintegration" have been assembling and boxing rosaries for institutions (hospitals, prisons, schools, etc.). In fact, the inmates have also made thousands of rosaries for Fr. Thomas Blau for his retreats (remember last year's parish retreat?). This is in addition to hundreds of rosaries we distribute at the Ross County Fair and in our own programs. The Mental Health Department at CCI recently reported that since April 2014, CCI inmates have made over 42,000 rosaries. From time to time, I pick up 10-15 boxes of 200 rosaries from CCI, and the rosaries are mailed around the country and around the world, and the generosity of St. Peter's has been covering postage. If you would like to become part of this unusual ministry, you can do so by helping to defray some of the cost of postage. Feel free to make a donation on Sundays, indicated on the envelope that is it for the CCI Rosary Support. God Bless, Deacon Hauser
